

EXHIBIT 6.3. Problem-Solution Writing Prompt

We all experience problems or challenges in life. Sometimes, we face problems at home, at school, or in our communities.

Choose a problem you see at home, at your school, or in your community and describe it. Think about and explain the causes of the problem. Describe the effects of this problem. Propose two or three solutions to this problem. Analyze the pros and cons of each solution. Choose the solution you feel is the best and support your position with reasons and examples.