- 2. What do you think is happening in the picture? In other words, what is the story behind the picture? This is called a Claim.

I think the man is very poor and is living in the street.

- 3. What do you see that makes you say that? This is called Evidence. Give at least two pieces of evidence.

I think this is correct because the man is sitting on the ground with his dog.

I also think this is true because it looks like he is trying to make a home on the street with blankets, a mattress, and some chairs.

- 4. What do you think happened next? This is called a Claim.

I think he asked people walking by for some money or for some food or a drink.

- 5. What do you know or what do you see that makes you say that? This is called Evidence.

I think this is true because he has a cup in front of him.

- 6. Write a question that you have about the picture:

I wonder if anyone will help him.

- 7. Put all your answers together in one paragraph:

I think the man is very poor and is living in the street. I think this is correct because the man is sitting on the ground with his dog. I also think this is true because it looks like he is trying to make a home on the street with blankets, a mattress, and some chairs.
