

EXHIBIT 4.22. Holiday Data Set

Categories: Christmas, Valentine's Day, Thanksgiving, Martin Luther King, Jr., Day, Presidents' Day, Halloween, The Day of the Dead, Ramadan, Hanukkah, Indigenous Peoples' Day

- 1. Christmas is on December 25th.
- 2. People often give candy or roses as gifts on Valentine's Day.
- 3. Thanksgiving is on the fourth Thursday in November.
- 4. Indigenous Peoples' Day is celebrated instead of Columbus Day in some communities.
- 5. Martin Luther King, Jr., fought for African Americans to have equal rights.
- 6. Presidents' Day is on the third Monday in February.
- 7. Children wear costumes on Halloween.
- 8. During Ramadan, Muslims do not eat or drink during the day.
- 9. Presidents' Day celebrates George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. They were both presidents of the United States.
- 10. Many people eat turkey on Thanksgiving.
- 11. Many people celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ on Christmas. People who believe that Jesus Christ is the son of God are called Christians.
- 12. The Day of The Dead is celebrated in Mexico, and by Mexicans who live in other countries.
- 13. On Thanksgiving, some families travel to other family member's homes to share a meal together.
- 14. Martin Luther King, Jr., Day is on the third Monday in January.
- 15. During The Day of The Dead, people remember people they love who have died.
- 16. People eat a lot of candy on Halloween.
- 17. Valentine's Day is on February 14th.
- 18. People celebrate love on Valentine's Day.
- 19. In the United States, Indigenous Peoples' Day honors Native American history and culture.
- 20. Ramadan is a holiday observed by Muslims.
- 21. People celebrate the fight for equality on Martin Luther King, Jr., Day.

- 22. A heart is a symbol for Valentine's Day.
 - 23. Hanukkah is celebrated for eight days and nights.
 - 24. People often decorate a Christmas tree in their house.
 - 25. Jewish people celebrate Hanukkah at around the same time Christians celebrate Christmas.
-