

EXHIBIT 4.23. Halloween Data Set

Categories: Pumpkins, Imaginary Monsters, Children

1. A ghost is a person who died but is still here.
2. Children say "trick or treat!" when they go to homes on Halloween.
3. When children say "trick or treat!" they mean "Give me a treat or I will play a trick on you."
4. A vampire is a monster who drinks blood at night.
5. Children are given candy on Halloween.
6. Frankenstein is a monster made from parts of different dead people.
7. Carved pumpkins are called jack-o'-lanterns.
8. Pumpkins are vegetables.
9. Children wear costumes and visit homes on October 31st.
10. People can make pies using the inside of pumpkins.
11. Monsters can be scary.
12. A mummy is a dead person wrapped with cloth. A mummy is a monster when it is alive.