

EXHIBIT 8.5. Critical Thinking Dialogue “Great Depression”

Student One: It was pretty interesting learning about the Great Depression.

Student Two: Yes, it was interesting. I didn't know so many people didn't have jobs for such a long time.

Student One: It lasted 10 years!

Student Two: And so many people didn't have enough food to eat!

Student One: If you lived back then, do you think you would have left school and tried to get a job to help your family?

Student Two: I think _____ because _____.
What do you think you would have done?

Student One: I think _____ because _____. What do you think you would have done, _____?

Student Three: I think _____ because _____. If I left school one good thing would be that I wouldn't have to take Mr. Ferlazzo's class. It's so boring!

Student One and Two - together: BORING!!!!
