

EXHIBIT 17.2. English-Only Policies: Intention Vs. Reality

English-only policies intend to . . .	But English-only policies. . .
help students learn language	discount the value of the home language as a tool for learning a new language and accessing content create an English-rich environment	create an unwelcoming, exclusive environment where one language and culture is valued over others promote English practice	prevent students from fully participating
